VIII. Course Requirements:Class participation based on readings and other assignments:

Assigned readings from these books should be read prior to the class session in which they will be discussed. Students are expected to participate in class discussions. Contributions may also include outside readings and/or personal experience.

IX. Grading Scale:

A = 100-90

B = 89-80

C = 79-70

D = 69-60

F = below 60

X. Academic Honesty:

Academic honesty involves acts, which subvert or compromise the integrity of the educational process at the University of Arkansas. Included is an act by which a student gains or attempts to gain an academic advantage for himself or herself or another by misrepresenting his or her or another's work or by interfering with the completion, submission, or evaluation of work.

The application of the University of Arkansas Academic Honesty Policy, as stated on in the 2008-2009 Undergraduate Studies Catalog, will be fully adhered to in this course. Grades and degrees earned by dishonest means devalue those earned by all students; therefore, it is important that students are aware of the University of Arkansas Academic Honesty Policy. Academic dishonesty involves acts, which may subvert or compromise the integrity of the educational process.

XI. Inclement Weather Procedure:

If Fayetteville schools are closed due to inclement weather, we will not have class.

XII. Attendance Policy and Late Work Policy:

Attendance—you have to be present to win! Attendance is mandatory.

All assignments are due in class on the due date unless otherwise required.

Failure to meet this requirement results in a zero for that assignment unless previous arrangements have been made with me. No late work is accepted (you can arrange to turn assignments in early).

 Incompletes will not be given this semester due to departmental recommendations.

XIV. Syllabus Changes: The instructor reserves the right to make changes as necessary to the syllabus. If changes are necessary during the term of this course, the instructor will post both notification and nature of the change(s) on the course bulletin board.
