I.
Program Affiliation: Curriculum and Instruction
Course Number and Title: CIED 5052 Multicultural Issues
Prerequisites: Admission to the M.A.T. program

Catalogue Description: This seminar provides an introduction to the major concepts and issues related to multicultural/diversity education and the ways in which race, ethnicity, class, gender, and exceptionality among other variables influence students' behavior.

II. Relationship to Knowledge Base: Students will recognize the broad definition of diversity as it relates to the public education classroom and the implications of teaching for success to students with diverse backgrounds. Students will also develop an understanding of the definition, framework, and implementation of multicultural education and its relationship to the social and political context of a multicultural society.

NCATE Standard 4-Diversity: "The unit designs, implements, and evaluates curriculum and provides experiences for candidates to acquire and demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions necessary to help all students learn. Assessments indicate that candidates can demonstrate and apply proficiencies related to diversity. Experiences provided for candidates include working with diverse populations, including higher education and P–12 school faculty, candidates, and students in P–12 schools." (2009, http://www.ncate.org/public/unitStandardsRubrics.asp?ch=4#stnd4).

Scholar-Practitioner Tenet 3: One who understands, respects, and values diversity
III. Goals: Upon completion of this course, students will be cognizant of how schools and teachers view diversity and their assumptions of what constitutes diversity, the genesis and growth of multicultural education, and the practice of multicultural education in the contemporary classroom.

IV. Competencies: Upon completion of CIED 5052, students will

- Develop a working vocabulary as it relates to diversity, equity, and social justice.
- Discuss attitudes of racism and discrimination and their relationship to student achievement.
- Understand the relationship of culture, identity, and learning.
- Respect the role that language plays in identity and learning.
- Discuss the role of multicultural education, diversity, equity, social justice, and school reform and their implications for teachers, schools, and families.
- Recognize the reality of multicultural education in today’s classroom.
- Articulate their own frame of reference regarding multicultural education, equity, diversity, and social justice and how they will adjust their teaching methods to accommodate these concepts in the classroom.

V. Essential Questions

- What is the foundation of multicultural education?
- How do social class, ethnic identity, racial group, language, abilities and disabilities, religion, sexual orientation, and gender impact learning?
• How do teachers initiate multicultural education in their own classrooms?
• What roles do equity and social justice play in teaching to the 21st century learner?
• How is diversity defined?

VI.
Course Expectations:
Assigned readings from this book should be read prior to the class session in which they will be discussed. Students are expected to participate in class discussions. Contributions may also include outside readings and/or personal experience.
